

The Department of Mathematics

invites nominations for the

2014 F. V. Atkinson Teaching Award

This prize, awarded for the 4th time this year, honors outstanding teaching by post-doctoral fellows and other junior research faculty not on the tenure track. It is named in memory of former chair Frederick Atkinson, "friend to many, scholar, enthusiastic teacher and gifted researcher" [Angelo Mingarelli, Math. Nachr. 278, 2005]. Inspiring accounts of his work and life can be found on

<http://www-history.mcs.st-and.ac.uk/Biographies/Atkinson.html>

Nominations can be made by individuals or groups, and should be sent by e-mail or in writing to

Almut Burchard, almut@math.utoronto.ca
CC to Donna Birch, dbirch@math.utoronto.ca and Eckhard Meinrenken, mein@math.toronto.edu no later than

WEDNESDAY, APRIL 16, 2014

Please explain briefly:

- ◆ your reasons for the nomination; (what is special about the nominee's classes?)
- ◆ your relevant interactions with the nominee; (e.g., as current/former student, supervisor, or colleague)
- ◆ the course and year on which your assessment is based. (Courses may be at any level but should have taken place on the St. George Campus.)
